A Flower themed movie to conclude the 52nd Coorabell Flower Show.

In this acclaimed French drama, the enterprising Ugolin Soubeyran (Daniel Auteuil) returns to his native countryside to grow flowers.

He conspires with his uncle, Cesar (Yves Montand), to gain access to a hidden spring on a neighbouring property, but they must contend with Jean de Florette (Gérard Depardieu), who arrives with his family to turn the coveted plot into a profitable farm.

Join the club on the night to see the movie.

Fundraising Dinner

Saturday 4 March

6.00 Drinks

7.00 Dinner

Donations are Tax
Deductable

MC Mae Wilde will host a fundraising dinner to help raise funds for a much needed side deck and bi-fold doors, picture windows and a coffee bar/window.

The DA has been approved and we are ready to go!

Food by Wild Rice Queen, and entertainment by young Gold Coast singing sensation Jack Watson - be serenaded throughout the evening with his repertoire of crooner legends.

Adrian Newstead, of Cooe Aboriginal Art Gallery Sydney will auction opportunities to pledge your support.

Coorabell Hall's auspice arrangement with Brunswick Valley Historical Society means all donations will be tax deductible.

The evening is sure to be a night to remember!

See coorabellhall.net for ticket information.
