LA STRADA

Food & Drinks (Licensed) at 6.00

Film starts at 7.30

Regarded by some as Federico Fellini's (La Dolce Vita) finest work and the winner of the Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film, La Strada is a masterpiece of 20th Century filmmaking.

The 1954 Italian drama tells the story of the waif-like Gelsomina (Giuletta Masina) who is sold by her impoverished mother to Zampano (Anthony Quinn, Zorba the Greek), a brutish fairground wrestler, and lives a life of drudgery as his assistant. After taking to the road with a travelling circus, a budding relationship with a gentle-natured tightrope walking clown offers a potential refuge from her master's clutches. Trapped by her own servile nature, Gelsomina waivers and Zampano's volcanic temper erupts with tragic consequences.

La Strada has become "one of the most influential films ever made", according to the American Film Institute. It won the inaugural Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film in 1957 and was placed fourth in the 1992 British Film Institute directors' list of cinema's "top 10 films"
